VOTE

The greatest privilege and responsibility we have as the citizens of the United States of America is the ability to vote. In the past few national and state elections, voter turnout has been at almost record lows. Sadly, a large block of Christians did not vote. Some feel like they are in between a rock and hard place. Some will loyally vote along their preferred party line. Let me encourage you, no matter where you stand, to look at the issues our country faces, and prayerfully vote for that person who can best lead us forward. What if the results are not what you want? I came across this article on social media which I think will encourage you. (Author unknown)

After the Election is over, we can still guarantee these results:

1. God will still be on His throne.
2. Jesus will still be King of kings and Lord of lords.
3. The Bible will still have all the answers to every problem.
4. The tomb will still be empty – Christ is risen!
5. Jesus will still be the only way to heaven (John 14:6).
6. Prayer will still work; it will still make a difference, and God will still answer prayer.
7. The cross, not the government, will still be our salvation.
8. There will still be room at the cross.
9. Jesus will still save anyone who places their faith and trust in Him.
10. God will still be with us; He will never leave us or forsake us.

What great truths these are. No matter what happens, God is still in control. He has a plan for our lives, our country, and the world. God's plans are not dictated by what happens in the elections of the United States. And, if your candidate(s) don't win, remember this: The Lord is coming soon! "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." (1 Thessalonians 4:16-18)

DID YOU KNOW...

What is going to happen according to end times prophecy?

The Bible has a lot to say about the end times. Below is a very brief summary of what the Bible declares will happen in the end times.

Christ will remove all born-again believers from the earth the rapture (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; 1 Corinthians 15:51-54). At the judgment seat of Christ, these believers will be rewarded for good works and faithful service during their time on earth or will lose rewards, but not eternal life, for lack of service and obedience (1 Corinthians 3:11-15; 2 Corinthians 5:10).

The Antichrist (the beast) will come into power and will sign a covenant with Israel for seven years (Daniel 9:27). This seven-year period of time is known as the "tribulation." During the tribulation, there will be terrible wars, famines, plagues, and natural disasters. God will be pouring out His wrath against sin, evil, and wickedness. The tribulation will include the appearance of the four horsemen of the Apocalypse, and the seven seal, trumpet, and bowl judgments.

About halfway through the seven years, the Antichrist will break the peace covenant with Israel and make war against it. The Antichrist will commit "the abomination of desolation" and set up an image of himself to be worshiped in the Jerusalem temple (Daniel 9:27; 2 Thessalonians 2:3-10), which will have been rebuilt. The second half of the tribulation is known as "the great tribulation" (Revelation 7:14) and "the time of Jacob's trouble" (Jeremiah 30:7).

At the end of the seven-year tribulation, the Antichrist will launch a final attack on Jerusalem, culminating in the battle of Armageddon. Jesus Christ will return, destroy the Antichrist and his armies, and cast them into the lake of fire (Revelation 19:11-21). Christ will then bind Satan in the Abyss for 1,000 years and He will rule His earthly kingdom for this thousand-year period (Revelation 20:1-6).

At the end of the thousand years, Satan will be released, defeated again, and then cast into the lake of fire (Revelation 20:7-10) for eternity. Christ then judges all unbelievers (Revelation 20:10-15) at the great white throne judgment, casting them all into the lake of fire. Christ will then usher in a new heaven and new earth and the New Jerusalem, the eternal dwelling place of believers. There will be no more sin, sorrow, or death (Revelation 21-22).
